

12 reasons why Lifeline Language Services

- We're experienced - established 1990, we've been delivering quality language services for over 21 years.
- We're honest – if we say we'll do something, we do it. If we can't do something, we tell you.
- We're professional - all our linguists are professionally-qualified, experienced, and mother-tongue, so you can trust what we do.
- We're nice to work with - we only hire helpful friendly people, and we train them properly.
- We're trusted by partners – so really good linguists want to work on your stuff.
- We're capable – supporting 150+ languages, in translation, interpreting, typesetting, voiceover and more.
- We're one-stop – whatever you need in language, we do it. Except training!
- We're global – with clients and linguists around the world, there's little we can't do and few places we can't reach.
- We're local – wherever you need language, we're there.
- We're recommended – we're good, and our clients tell others. We get great references too.
- We're here to stay – with over 27,000 projects delivered to date, you know your project will still be here when you need it again.
- We're secure – total confidentiality, secure systems, and trusted staff mean your stuff is safe.